

Follow all directions. If you have a question, please ask.

Please write your contestant number/letter in the upper right hand corner of your answer sheet.

Senior questions will appear in the green boxes.

Please do your own work. We do not want to take your answer sheet.

Remember, if your answer is left blank – it will definitely be incorrect!

Connecticut Senior 4-H Hippology Slides Activity

1. Identify this breed
2. What is its country of origin?
3. What is the term for the hair on its lower legs?

4. What equine relative is seen in the top picture?

5. What equine relative is seen in the bottom picture?

6. What color is this horse?

7. Identify face marking A

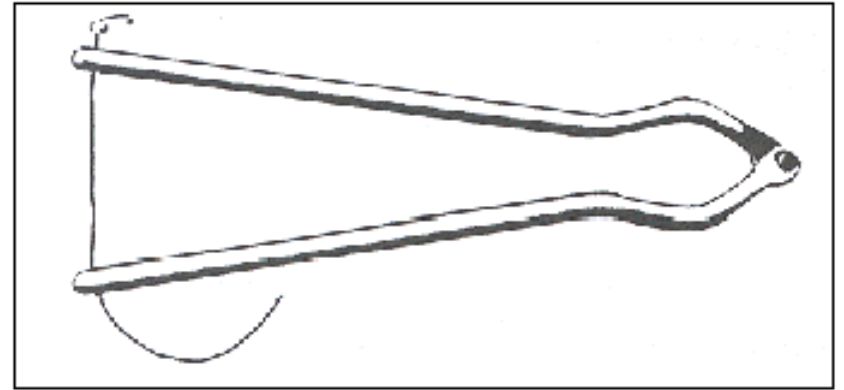

8. Identify face marking B

9. The islands where this breed originated are off the north coast of what country?

10. In what industry were these ponies used historically?

15. What tool is pictured on the left?

16. Could it be used to determine if a horse had an abscess?

17. On what area of the horse do you use the tool on the right?

One horse has a body condition of four and the other has a body condition of seven.

18. What is the body condition score for the horse on the left?

19. What is the body condition score for the horse on the right?

20. Is the sport in the top picture included in the Olympics?

21. At what age is this breed considered “permanent” in height?

© 1997 Oklahoma State University

Provided by Rick and Priscilla Hawkyard

© Photo by Cathie Peterson

22. What conformation flaw is depicted in the top picture?

23. What conformation flaw is depicted in the picture below?

24. What internal parasite's eggs are pictured here?

25. What tool is used to remove them?

