

Career Connection – Journalist

Journalists inform the public about happenings around the world. They may work for a local newspaper or be a correspondent in a far off country. Journalists help people understand the latest news through research and interviewing those directly involved. Journalists must be good communicators and listeners and always value truth and unbiased facts.