

Career Connection – Performing Artist

Performing artists perform in front of an audience. Jobs can include being an actor, comedian, singer, dancer, magician, and puppeteer to name just a few.

Performing artists need good speaking, writing and interpersonal skills to be successful. They must also be creative, effective communicators and have patience and perseverance.