

Career Connection – School Counselor

School counselors help students get the most out of school by helping them handle many different issues. Some might be education related such as picking a college or what classes to take. They might also help with personal/family problems or dealing with stress or a bully.

Skills of a school counselor include: being a good listener, clear communication, time management and respect for others.