

Career Connection – Video Game Designer

Video game designers create worlds, story, characters, rules and gameplay of a video game. They focus on fitting characters into a unique story, often working as part of a creative team.

Video game designers use the following skills: creativity, problem solving, project & resource management, a passion for gaming and a willingness to work as part of a team.