

Career Connection – Art Therapist

An art therapist provides support to those in need through the use of creative tools and artistic media. They can help improve physical, emotional, and mental well-being using tools such as drawing, painting, sculpting or other artistic means.

They help people explore feelings or emotional conflicts by helping them open up and learn new coping skills as part of therapy.