

Career Connection – Athletic Trainer

An athletic trainer works with athletes to help prevent and treat sports related injuries. They can work in many different settings.

They help diagnose and work with athletes on ways to heal and come back from injuries as part of a care team. They may also educate and work with athletes on ways to stay healthy and prevent injuries through proper exercise practices.