

Career Connection – Dietitian

A registered dietitian is an expert in food and nutrition. They help promote good health through proper eating and food choices. They may help plan a healthy menu, teach people about nutrition, how to prepare healthy meals and snacks or do research to better understand how our diet affects our health. They can also counsel people or work as part of a medical care team.