Workshops

1. Needle Felting – Learn needle felting! We'll use cookie cutters as molds to needle felt wool roving in shapes that can be used as ornaments or fragrance diffusers.
(Facilitated by Emily Allard)
2. Acrylic Painting – Learn a fun technique to paint a beautiful spring tree. Makes a great Mother's Day gift. (Facilitated by Peggy Sise)
3. Bracelet Knitting – Learn how to make a knitted wrap bracelet. Learn how to cast on, knit and cast off.
(Facilitated by Melissa Lavoie)
4. LEGO Art Challenge – Make a unique art square to be added to create a LEGO quilt.
(Facilitated by Marc Cournoyer)
5. Rope Halter Making – Learn how to make rope halters to use with livestock projects. (Limited number available) (Facilitated by Jim Holdridge)
6. Magic Wand Carving – Carve your own Harry Potter style magic wand using local tree limbs.
(Facilitated by Liam Daly)
7. Flower Arranging – Learn how to make a unique flower arrangement with native grown flowers.
(Facilitated by Pam Gray)
8. iPad Photography Editing – Take your own photos using an iPad and then learn how to create special effects with the photos using iPad editing software.
(Facilitator TBA)

Each attendee should complete the registration matrix. Most workshops will be offered multiple times. Space is limited for some workshop sessions so it will be first come, first served for each workshop being offered.

We will also have a gallery space set up in the halls. If you have a creative art piece that you would like to display, please bring it and add to the gallery for others to admire.
