

Middlesex County Rotating Cup Awards

Award Nominations

Now is the time to complete the nominations for trophies that are specifically related to the 4-H Fair, to community service, or to club project work. These awards are the Lillian Logan Community Service Cup, The Marion Watson Home Economics Cup, The John C. Anderson Cup, The Russell Cup, The Chris Valleriay Memorial Award, The Forestry Cup, and the Safety Cup.

Awards

Rotating cups are awarded to clubs for outstanding work in an activity area. To nominate your club for a cup, please list all of the activities and events your club participated in or conducted that are pertinent to the award. Please use the nomination forms provided.

The Chris Valleriay Memorial Trophy – Donated by the Rim Rock Riders and is now given by Middlesex County 4-H Advisory Committee to an outstanding 4-H horse club. Criteria for selection include: all members must have submitted evaluated record books, 50% of the club’s members must have competed at the 4-H Fair, and the club must have conducted a community service project.

Lillian Logan Community Service Cup – Awarded to the club whose members have best served their community through community service projects this year. A majority of club members must have been actively involved in each community service project.

John C. Anderson Cup – Awarded to the Middlesex County club who demonstrated outstanding work in the area of agriculture. A majority of club members must have agricultural projects and submit up-to-date record sheets on their agricultural projects for evaluation.

The Safety Cup – Awarded to the club who not only uses safe practices when completing their 4-H work but goes on to promote safety at the 4-H Fair and in their community.

The Marion Watson Home Economics Cup – Awarded to the club who is most active in home economics projects. These projects may include food preparation and storage, sewing, needlework, home furnishings, gardening, woodworking, electrical work, artwork, or crafting of any kind. Club work must be exhibited at the 4-H Fair.

The Forestry Cup – Awarded to the Middlesex County club who has exhibited outstanding work in the forestry project area.

Russell Cup – A rotating award honoring the club that does the most to promote and conduct the Middlesex and New Haven County 4-H Fair. Please see the Russell Cup Nomination Form for more details.
